THAT'S OUR SCHOOL... say Linda Chambers, left, and Barbara Youngman, both seniors at Narbonne High School, as they look through the latest issue of Hot Rod Magazine, which hit the stands this week bringing nation-wide attention to the local school. The mag carries a six-page story giving the low-down on how to stage a hot rod show, with the recent successful one at Narbonne used as an example. Pictures of many students, including Jack Carden and Dick Barret, chairmen of the show, and Betty Hutchison, Miss Lomita of 1953, brighten the text. Both story and photos were done by Jack Baldwin, Herald managing editor.

Plans Discussed for Choosing Chamber's 'Citizen of Year'

Plans for the selection of a "Citizen of the Year" to be named at the Annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in January were discussed at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber Monday afternoon.

The citizen, to be nominated by a resident of Torrance, must be an adult of any race, creed, religion, or political belief except Communism. To be eligible the candidate must be a member of the Chamber or work for a concern which is a member.

Heading the "Citizen of the Year" committee is Attorney Don Armstrong who is aided by Paul Loranger and Fay Parks.

A large perpetual trophy is to be donated by Mrs. Phyrne Laughon, widow of the late Dr. William I. Laughon, and Mrs. Florence Peckham, widow of the late George Peckham. Both men were prominent civic leaders and long-time members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club. The trophy will remain in possession of the "Citizen of the Year" during the 12 months following his selection. A smaller plaque to be retained by the "Citizen" will be awarded each year by the Chamber.

The committee recommended the acceptance of the award conditions based on a recommendation presented by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Chamber.
